1/11/2016	Ken, Liz	Cervical Ripening and Oxytocin	Thank you for all that you have done in regard to Cervical Ripening and Oxytocin literature. The Workgroups will be convening in January, and using your literature search as the basis for their work.	Gerald Girardi, MD	Perinatal Medical Director Livonia, MI
1/29/2016	Ken	Literature Search	Thank you so much for your help. I read the prior three articles/chapters and they were very helpful. I am preparing a lecture for next weekend and the chapter on benign breast diseases will help me so much with the preparation. Have a great weekend.	Suzanne Robertson, CNP	certified Women's Health Nurse Practitioner Surgical Oncology Associates of Columbus
3/25/2016	Don	RefWorks	I hope each of you learned as much as I did yesterday at the library...what an endless supply of references we have here at Mount Carmel. I have forwarded these resources to the group this morning. Please know that your instruction yesterday was right on point and very helpful to each of us.	Teresa Wright, BSN, RN	Total Quality Manager Infection Prevention & Colleague Health Specialist Mount Carmel New Albany Surgical Hospital
5/4/2016	handwritten note	Thanks from student	Thank you for everything you do for MCCN's students. From lifting everyone's spirits with ice cream days to assisting students find research articles, the library and its staff are a great asset to Mount Carmel! Thank you for all you've done!	Sarah Keller	MCCN Student, 2012-2016
5/16/2016	Ken	HLTH 320 Statistics	Thank you for sharing the attached three articles which are very helpful. In the attached JPG, you will observe I have stumbled onto 20 articles. Your contributions increase the size to 23. I now have enough information to create some amazing HLTH 320 Statistics examples which the students will find very meaningful. As always, I continue to be amazed by the nursing journal resources available through the library. I also value your assistance and willingness to help even though we did not have the opportunity to discuss this project in person. Please have my sincere thanks, Ken.	Dale M. Hilty, PhD, MA, MEd, BA	Associate Professor Mount Carmel College of Nursing

6/3/2016	Ken	GEM Note	Ken, you are one of the most amazing people I have ever worked with! It is Friday, I am tired. You surpassed my expectations and have me smiling on a Friday. I cannot express how much your professionalism means to me. Have a great weekend!	Lisa Wolf	Nurse Residency Program Manager Regional Nurse Management
8/23/2016	Ken, Liz	English 110 Class Presentation	Thank you each SO MUCH for coming to class. What a terrific presentation! The print magazine exercise was wonderful. I really appreciate it. I can't tell you how much better it is to have you, the experts, come in and talk about research than it is to have me up there lecture. We had a great discussion after the presentation, and I feel confident that they're much more prepared to dig into the upcoming project. THANK YOU.	Amanda Page, MFA	Assistant Professor Mount Carmel College of Nursing
9/8/2016	Noreen	Article Request	Thank you very much! I did receive the article and I appreciate all your help. I will definitely contact Mr. Wright, I am sure that will be very beneficial. You are wonderful and I certainly am grateful for the wonderful resources we have available. You all do an awesome job!	Sonya Kennedy	RN, Electrophysiology Lab, MCW
10/3/2016	Noreen	Website Chat Function	Thank you for your help! As a student it is really nice to have the quick chat option, I've used it several times and it's so helpful, thank you!	Nikki Piazzi	MCCN Student
10/13/2016	Noreen	Spirituality and Patient Care	The above book on integrating spirituality into patient care is now available in our hospice library AND at the MCHS Library. One presenter recommended this book as mandatory reading for all palliative/hospice care providers. Much GRATITUDE to Noreen Mulcahy and her MCHS library team for supporting our library and the continuing education of our staff.	Judy Prendeville MSN, RN-BC	Clinical Manager, Mount Carmel Palliative Care

11/10/2016	Ken	Literature Search	Thank you very much for your help. The literature was useful and helped me achieve my goal. I appreciate the help I have been given by you and the library this year. It is wonderful to have a library on our campus. I love accessing the library from home when I am working on research papers. It's brilliant!! Makes life so much easier. The staff is very kind and always willing to help and offer fantastic ideas.	Sonya Kennedy	RN, Electrophysiology Lab, MCW
